

GoChinese's GCSE Resources

What do we have for GCSE students?

GCSE Revision:

GoChinese Reading Modules

Selection of reading / listening passages accompanied by comprehension exercises. The passages are categorised by GCSE topics. Over 30 passages.

GCSE Level

GCSE Level (Advanced), incorporating slightly more advanced vocabulary words

Earlier Levels:

GoChinese Reading Modules

Selection of reading / listening passages accompanied by comprehension exercises. The passages are categorised by GCSE topics. Over 25 passages.

Introductory Level, where the passages use only vocabulary introduced in that unit or in previously introduced units, following the textbook that your school is using

Introductory Level (Revision Version), where the passages may incorporate vocabulary from other units introduced in the first year of study

■ Students can point the cursor at any word in a passage to view the definition and double-click or highlight words to hear the spoken voice. Hanyu Pinyin is displayed.

■ Exercises often feature voice support and are all auto-assessed. Teachers and students can monitor score and usage performance.

All of these resources can be customised by GoChinese to match your teaching curriculum and textbooks that you are using.
